Casino Player magazine recognizes Dover Downs Hotel & Casino

DOVER, Del. — For the sixth consecutive year, Dover Downs Hotel & Casino has been recognized as a “Best of Gaming” winner in an annual reader and critic poll conducted by Casino Player magazine, the nation’s leading consumer gaming magazine. The full results appear in the magazine’s July 2008 “Best of Gaming” issue.

Dover Downs Hotel & Casino received nationwide honors in the racinos division with nine first-place awards including best overall hotel casino, best hotel, best suites, best rooms, best race/sportsbook, best comps, best hosts, best overall entertainment and best gourmet restaurant for Michele’s. The company garnered seven second-place and six third-place awards as well.

“We are certainly pleased to be recognized at this level and understand that it is the dedication of our employees that makes the difference every day in customer loyalty and satisfaction,” stated Ed Sutor, president and chief executive officer of Dover Downs Hotel & Casino. “Our recent property enhancements have proven advantageous in this increasingly competitive gaming market, as well. Last year, we doubled the size of our hotel and opened the luxurious Toppers Spa/Salon. With the early opening of The Colonnade casino expansion next week, we will continue to provide our guests with new and more exciting forms of entertainment and enjoyment while maintaining the excellent customer service for which our employees have made us known.”

Casino Player began to recognize racinos - a hybrid term describing the pairing of horse racing tracks with slot machines - in 2003 as a unique and growing part of the nationwide gaming community.
